7. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Dr. Mixson, in the Department of Agriculture, regarding the allegations of Agency involvement in the outbreak of African swine fever in Cuba in 1971. I told Mixson that the Agency had issued a flat denial of any involvement, but that we had also provided some additional information which appeared to be in error, and this erroneous information was tainting our denial of involvement. Specifically, I asked Mixson what actions had been taken by the Department after being informed of the outbreak in 1971. Mixson verified that there was not an inoculation program and stated the Department had stepped up inspection at ports of entry to insure that no infected meat was brought into the country and that the Immigration and Naturalization Service had questioned visitors from Cuba about the outbreak and whether they carried any meat products.

2. [] LIAISON Colonel Steve Harrick, Aide to Assistant Secretary of Defense for Intelligence, called regarding his conversation with Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, on budget presentations. Miller is anxious to begin and feels it would be preferable to await the appointment of a new DCI but doesn't want to hold up much longer than the middle of February. I suggested to Harrick that we meet at Headquarters to pull together our ideas on satisfying S. Res. 400 requirements. Harrick thought this a splendid idea and would like to invite Jim Bush, who is apparently taking over for John Slack.

3. [] LIAISON Howard Liebengood, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, advised that he would be leaving the Committee to work for Senator Howard Baker (R., Tenn.) in the Minority Leader office.

Liebengood asked for background on security clearances for Max Friedersdorf and Bob Wolthuis, Senate Republican Policy Committee staff, which had been mentioned to him by Bill Miller, Staff Director of the Select Committee. I reviewed the issues with him and Liebengood intends to discuss the matter with Senator Baker.

I told Ms. Bacon that this raised a rather novel question that I would have to look into and get back in touch.

Following my conversation with Ms. Bacon, I talked with Darrell St. Claire, Assistant Secretary to the Secretary of the Senate, regarding the status of Friedersdorf and Wolthius. He said that both of these men were employees of the Senate and on the Senate payroll and when I discussed the nature of my interest, St. Claire (who has considerable acquaintance with Agency matters) said he could see no problem in these men retaining their clearances since he was sure other staff people in these Committees also had security clearances. I also discussed this matter with Robert Gambino, D/OS, who said that unless some action is taken to terminate these clearances, they would remain in effect. 10. [] LIAISON Called Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and asked him if the matter concerning the Committee reviewing documents at the Kennedy library had been resolved. He said that it had and that John Matheny, from the White House, had gone there and was going to work side by side with the staffers.

I asked him if the NIE briefing was still on for tomorrow and he said it was. I told him Dick Lehman and Howard Stoertz, both from NIO, and George Cary would be the ones attending.

I also asked Miller if he had a chance to talk to Senator Clifford P. Case (R., N.J.) about the Case Act. He said he didn't but would do so today or tomorrow.

25X1

11. [] LIAISON Ted Ralston, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, called to say that the NIE briefing would be held in Room S407 of the Capitol at 10:30 a.m.

25X1

12. [] LIAISON Spoke to Ruth Morgan, GAO, concerning technology transfer techniques used by Government agencies. She said she understood the CIA does gather information on foreign technology and wanted to know whether this information could be provided to American businesses. I asked her to put her request in a letter and told her it would be better if she qualified her request "to the extent permissible in light of the Agency's special security responsibilities."

25X1

13. [] LIAISON Spoke to Sam Goldberg, Department of State, concerning our policy that personal staffers of Members of Congress not sit in on compartmented briefings if they weren't on a committee payroll. He said they share our feelings and would definitely support us and knows of no exception to the policy.

25X1

14. [] LIAISON Fred Ruth, on the staff of Senator Dewey F. Bartlett (R., Okla.), called to ask the name and office of the briefer of the Senator on 11 January, saying that he gave a very impressive presentation. I stated it was [] OSR, and he was accompanied by [] of our office.

25X1 the Senate Armed Services Committee on NIE 11-3-8 and the B Team

25X1 14. [] LIAISON Called Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Defense Subcommittee staff, and told him that I would be sending up to him tomorrow the names of the Committee staffers we had cleared for compartmented information. I also told him that we were sending to Chairman George Mahon's (D., Texas) office copies of various atlases for inclusion in the George and Helen Mahon Library. (This was a follow-up from the Director's breakfast with the Chairman on 10 January.) I also told Preston that the Director had requested that a personalized plaque be made up for the Chairman and our people were working on this and we would deliver it to the Chairman upon completion.

25X1 15. [] LIAISON Sent to the following Congressional offices the Agency's publication entitled, "A Dollar Cost Comparison of Soviet

25X1 17. [] LIAISON Provided Dr. Richard Grimmitt, Congressional Reference Service at the Library of Congress, with the unclassified source titles for information on certain petroleum impact figures provided to him earlier. This information was obtained from the Center for Policy Support, DDI.

6. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Barbara Allen, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, requesting a copy of the January 1976 Agency Western Hemisphere Atlas. I told her I would be coming to the Hill tomorrow and would drop a couple of copies off with her.

25X1

7. [REDACTED] LIAISON Anne Karalekas, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, called and informed me that she had been in touch with Mr. Sorensen's New York office and would get most of the information they needed from that source. I asked her to keep me informed of anything the Committee needed from us and we would see they get it. I told her the letter from the General Counsel to the Committee regarding conflicts of interest would be delivered by close of business tomorrow.

25X1

8. [REDACTED] LIAISON Danny Coulson, Legal Counsel, FBI, called to advise that the Attorney General was going to send a letter to the Speaker of the House on cutting off access to any information to the House Select Committee on Assassinations since it is technically out of business and to do so would cause legal implications, namely, vulnerability of FBI personnel to law suits under the Privacy Act. They will stress in the letter that they will continue to prepare material for review recognizing that the current status most likely is only temporary. I thanked him for the information.

25X1

9. [REDACTED] LIAISON Howard Liebengood, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, called and said that Mike Madigan, also on the Committee staff, and some others were sent to the Kennedy library to review material in connection with Mr. Sorensen's confirmation hearing on Monday, 17 January and there was some sort of hold on some of the material. I reviewed my understanding of the procedure to be followed: review of indices, selection of documents, to be followed by review by appropriate agencies and provisioning documents to the Committee. Liebengood complained over the length of this process and couldn't understand why the documents couldn't be seen on the spot. I told him Executive privilege may be involved, that he should contact the NSC, and that in the meantime I would see what I could do.

I later called back to assure that contact was being made at the right level within the Executive Branch and that we were not considered a blocking agent.

5. [] LIAISON Mike Madigan, Minority Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, called and said as part of the preparation for the Sorensen confirmation hearings, some people from the Committee will be going up to the Kennedy Library to review documents and there may be some bureaucratic clearance problems apparently with regard to some of the National Security papers and he would like something saying they met the Agency's requirements for security clearance. I told Madigan I would check on this but I thought that on the basis of present arrangements, if asked we would state that the staffers were cleared by the Committee but the investigations met the requirements of DCID 1/14. I emphasized, however, that the Agency would not want to become "the ham in the sandwich" in this exercise.

6. [] BRIEFINGS Frank Sullivan, Staff Director, Senate Armed Services Committee, called and I told him we had gotten word from the Director that the White House had approved our briefing the Committee on NIE 11-3-8 and the B Team report.

I also discussed with Sullivan the possibility of the Director giving the Committee a worldwide wrap-up briefing on Thursday, 13 January from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. and said this was the only time the Director was available. Sullivan said he would check on this and be back in touch.

Later in the day, Sullivan called and said Chairman John Stennis (D., Miss.) would like to schedule an executive session hearing on NIE 11-3-8 and the B Team report for tomorrow morning at 10:00 a.m. After checking, I told Sullivan the briefers would be Richard Lehman, NIO, and Howard Stoertz, NIO/SP.

7. [] FOIA Ross Shaffer, who identified himself as an intern on the staff of Representative James Howard (D., N.J.), called wanting to know how to come out to the Agency Headquarters Building to see whether or not the Agency maintained a file on him. I told Shaffer that because this is a secure building and also because we are inundated by Freedom of Information requests, the best thing for him to do would be to write a letter to our Freedom of Information Coordinator and I provided him the address.

7. [] LIAISON Talked to Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, several times during the day. I told Miller the Agency would now prefer to testify [] on the morning 17 January and Miller said that would be fine and we agreed to a 10:00 a.m. start. He estimated the Committee's session with Agency spokesmen would last no more than two hours. I told him the Agency's witnesses would be the Director, Ted Shackley, A/DDO, and Tony Lapham, General Counsel. I asked if he anticipated the Committee would call any other Agency witnesses and he replied he didn't think so, but there was a chance the Committee would call []. I suggested that if this was the case, [] accompany the Director and Miller said that would be fine. F. Haydn Williams, who handled negotiations for the State Department with the [] will also appear on 17 January. The Committee will also hear from spokesmen from Department of the Interior, Department of State (both legal and Pacific Affairs specialist) and perhaps from the National Security Council. Miller said he would forward me a witness list when it was final.

Regarding other Committee hearings, Miller said he would try to schedule a covert action hearing for sometime next week. He will let me know the date.

Regarding Mr. Sorensen's confirmation hearings, Miller said he had not received a firm request from the Carter transition people to commence Select Committee action before President-elect Carter's inauguration. Miller said he would have to call a Mr. Coffey, on the transition staff, again on that matter.

I told Miller that the Director had agreed to meet with him on 13 January at 4:00 to discuss his reflections on his year at CIA and views for the future. Miller was most appreciative of the opportunity to meet with Mr. Bush.

Finally, Miller asked for full reports on the 9 January 1977 Washington Post article alleging that CIA had provided swine virus to anti-Castro Cubans which had been smuggled into Cuba, and for a report on the 31 December 1976 Jack Anderson column about Agency activities vis-a-vis the Alaskan pipeline.

8. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Larry Smith, Senate Rules and Administration Committee staff, about the Rules Committee action on S. Res. 4 which would reorganize the Senate Committee system. With reference to the recommendations regarding the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, Smith said Senator Frank Church (D., Idaho) had testified that the study on the need for a permanent intelligence committee was part of the S. Res. 400 requirements on the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and that the Select Committee should have that responsibility rather than the proposed Committee on Governmental Affairs. Smith said he thought the Rules Committee would amend S. Res. 4 to reflect this point.

10. [REDACTED] LIAISON Informed Marty Gold, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, that the revised [REDACTED] which Gold had requested to see some months ago was due to be released this week and that I would probably be able to show him a copy early next week.

11. [REDACTED] LIAISON Audrey Hatry, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, called to say that the trip Chairman Daniel Inouye (D., Hawaii) was planning for 14 and 15 January 1977 to the West Coast would have to be cancelled. The Chairman is scheduled to meet with President-elect Carter during that time.
